

Western Pennsylvania Conservancy

Dear Hunter,

Thank you for your interest in hunting at Bear Run Nature Reserve. Thousands of visitors come to Fallingwater and Bear Run Nature Reserve each year to enjoy the beauty of the Reserve. For the protection of the natural resources and for the many visitors, hunting on Bear Run Nature Reserve is allowed by permit only. Please take a minute to read, print, and sign the permit provided here. You must have this permit in possession at all times along with your Pennsylvania hunting license.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

WPC Land Stewardship Program

BEAR RUN NATURE RESERVE HUNTING REGULATIONS

This is your permit to hunt on Western Pennsylvania Conservancy's Bear Run Nature Reserve. Always have this permit in possession as well as displaying your Pennsylvania Hunting License. This permit will indicate to others that you have obtained permission to hunt on the Bear Run Nature Reserve. A map has been included that indicates the areas in which hunting is not permitted on the Nature Reserve. Bear Run Nature Reserve is part of a cooperative management agreement with the Pennsylvania Game Commission. The following regulations will be enforced by Western Pennsylvania Conservancy and the Pennsylvania Game Commission.

1. Hunters must abide by Pennsylvania Game Commission regulations and Western Pennsylvania Conservancy Guidelines for Public Use (found at waterlandlife.org).
2. Hunters must have permits with them at all times. Hunting permits are not to be loaned to any other hunter. Staff present on the Reserve will check permits.
3. Hunting for any species is prohibited on Sundays.
4. Hunting is prohibited in areas posted as safety/no hunting zones, and the possession of firearms, bows, or other weapons is prohibited in the designated "No Hunting Zone".
5. Vehicles are prohibited on the Reserve (this includes all-terrain vehicles [ATVs], snowmobiles, motorcycles, dirt bikes, mountain bikes, cars, or trucks).
6. Damage to trees, shrubs, or any other vegetation is prohibited.
7. The construction of "blinds," shelters, or tree stands is prohibited on the Reserve, with the exception of manufactured portable tree stands. Tree stands must be removed after each use. Any stands remaining at the end of deer season will become the property of and be removed by Western Pennsylvania Conservancy.
8. Littering is prohibited on the Reserve. All hunters, as well as other users, are responsible for packing out any material that is brought into the Reserve.
9. All trapping is prohibited.

For any question please contact the Land Stewardship Program.
